

JACKSON STATUE UNVEILING TO-DAY

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lexington, Va., June 18.—Crowds of alumni, Confederate veterans and other friends of the Virginia Military Institute have arrived and many hundreds are expected on the morning train to take part in the unveiling of the monument to Stonewall Jackson. The statue is by Sir Moses Ezekiel, of Rome, and it is one of the masterpieces of that noted sculptor. It will be unveiled by a grandchild of Stonewall Jackson, and the speech of the day will be made by Colonel Preston Chew, '61, of Stuart's Horse Artillery.

The statue represents Jackson on the firing line at the battle of Chancellorsville. Jackson's feet are firmly planted, his right hand grasps his field glass, his left his unsheathed sabre, which hangs at his side. His figure is erect, the corner of the coat and the brim of the campaign hat are blown back by the wind, his eye is trained on his lines of gray so intently that he does not notice the bomb which lies at his feet about to explode.

The pedestal is of Italian marble, and bears the following inscription: "The Virginia Military Institute will be heard to-day—General Jackson at Chancellorsville, May 3, 1862."

Tuesday's Exercises.
The exercises to-day opened with guard mounting this morning at 9:30 o'clock and the escort to colors under Captain Kinsolving at 10 o'clock. There was an exciting sham battle, with two companies defending and four companies attacking the parade ground. The defense being assisted by the artillery. In the change up the parapet and across the ground, the litter and signal work were displayed.

In the afternoon the track meet was held, and after several of the events had been pulled off it began to rain, and the others were canceled. The third class won the meet with the highest number of points. At 10 o'clock to-night the alumni banquet, one of the most enjoyable of all the commencement features, was held, and it was attended by an unusually large number of former students. There were many impromptu toasts responded to, and the occasion was delightful in every sense of the word.

Final German.
It was followed by the final German, which was led by Cadet Joe N. Dalton and his sister, Miss Margaret Dalton. The German was sung by the choir, and the others were sung by the field, with Miss Elizabeth Hill, of Winston-Salem, were assistant leaders.

Governor Mann arrived from Fairfax, where he spoke this afternoon, to witness the regimental review, which was followed by the regimental parade. The battalions were under command of Captain Anderson, Captain Kinsolving and Captain Poague. The acting majors and adjutants and reviewing officers were mounted.

C. B. Easley, of Richmond, won the individual cup in the competition, H. P. Sewell was second. Company C won the company cup with a team of four men, Easley, Sewell, Brown and Conway. The work was under the charge of Captain Poague and Miller.

DETECTIVES GET $200

Wren and Whitshire, rewarded for services in Beattie trial.
Detective-Sergeant Wren and Whitshire, rendered the prosecution in the murder trial of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr. This sum was appropriated at the last session of the Legislature. In a letter to the Board of Police Commissioners, Commonwealth's Attorney Scherer, one of the principal detectives in building up evidence against the wife slayer, highly commended the services of Wren and Whitshire, and urged that all of the $200 be turned over to them. Results of this action are being considered, and one-half turned over to the treasury of the Police Benevolent Association.

Detective-Krenzel received $120 for assistance to the United States Department of Justice.
Bartholomew Brantley got $25 for capturing a deserter from the United States Navy, while Bartholomew Foster received $25 for capturing two deserters.

PRIEST FOR FORTY YEARS

Father Wilson to Celebrate Anniversary on June 25.

An event of considerable interest to many people of Petersburg and Richmond will be the celebration on Tuesday, June 25, of the fortieth anniversary in the priesthood of the Rev. Thomas J. Wilson, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Port Monroe. About twenty-five or thirty priests from all parts of the diocese are expected to take part in the ceremony, which will consist of a solemn high mass in the beautiful church at the hour of 10 o'clock, immediately upon the arrival of the 5 o'clock Chesapeake and Ohio train from Richmond.

Father Wilson, who is one of the most esteemed and efficient priests of the Richmond diocese, is looked upon as one of the pioneer missionaries of the State. His labors in various fields have always been carried out with unflinching energy and success. In Petersburg, in the Valley, in Fredericksburg and along the Rappahannock and in Old Point, Father Wilson has spent his zeal and his talents in promoting the Kingdom of God on earth. His work in his present field has been remarkable. By untiring labor and the sacrifice of his little family, he has aided his friends in Virginia, West Virginia, and Maryland, and has succeeded within the short period of twenty years in paying down the church debt of $2,000 to $18,000. It is a fond hope to see his debt entirely liquidated within the next few years. A large number of Father Wilson's friends will attend the celebration from Petersburg, Richmond and other points.

PECKHAM FINED $2

W. R. Peckham, adjutant of the American Salvation Army, was fined $2 and costs for holding religious services in the street without a permit from the Mayor in violation of the city ordinance.

Irene Diggs, counsel for Peckham, moved that the verdict be set aside as contrary to the evidence and being unconscionable. Judge E. H. Wells will hear argument on the motion Friday morning.

Peckham was fined $20 in Police Court and appealed.

At the Hotels

Robert P. Bruce, of Wise, a leading Democrat of the Southwest, is in the city on business before the State Board of Medical Examiners. Mr. Bruce says that the Democrats of his section will make a determined effort to elect General Rufus A. Ayers to Congress. An active canvass will be begun within a short time. Mr. Bruce was the party nominee for Congress in 1906, greatly reducing the normal Republican majority.

Former State Senator Aubrey E. Stroe, of Amherst, is in the city. Mr. Stroe was the author of the plank offered in the Norfolk convention, declaring for presidential preferential primaries, which was defeated by a large majority.

A. P. Gillespie and W. M. Gillespie, the cattle dealers, farmers and mill owners of the Southwest, are in Richmond from their home in Tazewell.

S. Wilkins Mathews, of Accomac, secretary of the State Commission of Fisheries, was here last night.

Dr. J. L. Jarman, president of the State Female Normal College at Farmville, is a visitor in the city.

Suggest the Title

Period Furniture

Here is a picture without a title. Now, we want our numerous friends and patrons to suggest a title for it, and we are offering six prizes for the best and most suitable titles for the picture.

To participate in this contest you must purchase from us some article during the period of the contest. Each purchase gives you the right to make one suggestion. When you make your purchase, ask the salesman to give you a "Picture Contest Card." Every mail order purchase entitles you to make a suggestion also.

The contest will end July 6th. The prizes will be awarded soon after by three competent and disinterested judges. The best suggestion wins the first prize; the second the second prize, etc.

Prizes to Be Awarded:

- |   |          |
|---|----------|
| First prize—One Suit of Furniture       | $50.00  |
| Second prize—One Coal or Gas Range      | $35.00  |
| Third prize—One Axminster or Wilton Rug | $25.00  |
| Fourth prize—One Leather Couch          | $20.00  |
| Fifth prize—One Picture                 | $15.00  |
